

Looking good

The Chiropractic Association is on a mission to get Ireland standing tall. Straighten Up Ireland week (October 13-16) aims to raise awareness of spinal health and the association has developed a series of three-minute exercises that will improve posture, stabilise core muscle groups and prevent spinal disability. To find out about free screenings or to download the exercise sheets log on to www.chiropractic.ie.